TITLE CARLOS BULOSAN			CHARACTER OF CASE SECURITY MATTER - C

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

SECURITY INFORMATION - CONFIDENTIAL

No information concerning subject's marriage or divorce found at Stockton, Calif., except that subject was in Stockton about September, 1948, and claimed he had just married in Seattle. AMADO E. DINO now believed to be in Los Angeles.

- RUC -

DETAILS: AT STOCKTON, CALIFORNIA

ISABELLO V. LA BRE, also known as BILL LA BRE, who resides at 511 East Jefferson Street and is the owner of the Hollywood Barber Shop at 110 South El Dorado Street, furnished the following information:

LA BRE stated he had known BULOSAN in Los Angeles for about two years from 1937 to 1939, during the depression. He stated that he knew the subject to be a writer but had never suspected him of any Communist activities or any sympathies with the Hukbalahaps. He stated that the subject had been sick and in a hospital most of the time that he knew him in Los Angeles and during that time was not very active in anything.

LA BRE advised that the subject came through Stockton in about September, 1948, at which time the subject claimed to have just married the girl who was with him and whose name was MARJORIE in Seattle, Washington.

LA BRE stated that they only remained in Stockton for a few days, at which time they roomed in his apartment, although he did not associate with them much during the time they were in Stockton. He advised that he had not seen the subject or his wife since that time.

LA BRE stated that he did not know if the subject was actually married to MARJORIE, stating that at the time he had doubted that they were married. However, he knew nothing concrete concerning this, and also advised that he knew nothing concerning the subject's possible divorce from MARJORIE.

LA BRE also stated that he knew nothing concerning the subject's association with an Indian at any time.

It is noted that there is no such address in Stockton as 47 North Grant Street, Room 212, which was reportedly the address of AMADO E. DINO.

The Stockton City Directory reflects that AMADO E. DINO, Publicity Director, Legionarios Del Trabajo, resides at 1221 South Lincoln.

CATHERINE CRUZ, 1221 South Lincoln Street, advised that AMADO E. DINO only came to Stockton for a few short visits each year, at which time he stays at this address. She advised that he was here several weeks ago but had returned to Los Angeles where his address was unknown to her.

Inquiry at the Legionarios Del Trabajo Hall, South Hunter and Hazleton Streets, revealed no information concerning a current address for DINO in Los Angeles.

Re Los Angeles letter, 5/27/52, San Francisco letter, 6/26/52, and Bulet, 7/23/52

You are advised that Philippine Consul General BENIGNO PIDLAOAN at San Francisco, California, was interviewed by SA [redacted] concerning subject. Mr. PIDLAOAN stated that he was desirous of cooperating with the FBI relative to Filipinos who were CP members or sympathetic to the Communist cause. He said that he did not desire to discuss subject or Communist matters in his office but desired to make arrangements with SA [redacted] to discuss these matters at some other location. b6 b7C

PIDLAOAN stated that he was acquainted with subject, who had called on him on several occasions during the past year, and it was PIDLAOAN's belief that subject was a CP member or at least sympathetic to the Communist movement. The only basis for this belief was the type of writing subject had written in the past for various labor union papers. PIDLAOAN further stated that he was convinced that subject knew the present whereabouts of the missing Huk leader, LUIS TARUC. He advised that subject was not a citizen of the United States; that he believed subject had recently married, but he did not know where.

PIDLAOAN advised that he had a source of information which he did not care to disclose at this time and which he would contact and obtain desired information re subject. He said that at a future date he would contact SA [redacted] to discuss subject.

UACB, the San Francisco Office will contact PIDLAOAN after a lapse of 30 days from the date of this letter if an interview has not been arranged by PIDLAOAN prior to that time.

SECURITY MATTER - C

Rerep SA [redacted] dated March 11, 1953, at Denver, entitled "THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE PHILIPPINES, 1937-1939; INTERNAL SECURITY - C" (LA 100-0-62551):

b6
b7C

Referenced report sets forth information obtained by interview from [redacted] concerning his knowledge of the Communist Party of the Philippines during the years 1937-1939. Page 7 of referenced report discusses one "BULL", described as a Comintern agent. [redacted] felt that "BULL" might be identical with CARLOS BULOSAN, adding if he were furnished a photograph of BULOSAN he might be able to ascertain if "BULL" were identical with BULOSAN. He described "BULL" as Filipino, age 38-40, height 5' 4", weight 170 pounds, heavy set, eyes black-hard, appearance - "bull" face.

b7D

It is noted this description does not resemble that of BULOSAN. However, the above is being brought to the attention of the Seattle Office as Office of Origin since BULOSAN was last known to be in that area, should it be desired to have a photograph of BULOSAN exhibited to [redacted]

No further action is contemplated by the Los Angeles Office.

SAC, SEATTLE (100-20689)

CARLOS EULOSAN
SECURITY MATTER - C
(Origin - Seattle)

Re Los Angeles letter to Seattle, dated April 20, 1953.

Enclosed herewith is one photograph of CARLOS EULOSAN obtained from the Los Angeles Office and taken from the April 25, 1944, issue of the "Daily People's World". This photograph should be exhibited to [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] felt that EULOSAN might be identical with a Filipino, age 38-40, height 5' 4", weight 170 pounds, heavy set, eyes black-hard, appearance - "bull" face, known to [redacted] as "BULL" and described as a Comintern agent. b7D

The description of "BULL" definitely does not resemble that of the subject. The subject has short features and only weighs 98 pounds. The subject has for years appeared to be in very poor health inasmuch as he is an alcoholic and is presently confined to Firland's Sanitarium in Seattle, Washington with tuberculosis where he will remain indefinitely, at least for several months in the future.

CARLOS EULOSAN is further described as follows:

Born:	April 12, 1912, in the Philippine Islands.
Height:	5' 2"
Weight:	98 lbs.
Build:	Thin, small. Left leg shorter and stiff, giving the appearance of a wooden leg.
Hair:	Black
Eyes:	Brown
Complexion:	Brown

If [redacted] identifies the subject as the Comintern agent known to him as "BULL", [redacted] should be interviewed at length concerning the subject and Seattle furnished with a copy of the report of SA [redacted] dated March 11, 1953, at Denver entitled "THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE PHILIPPINES, 1937-1939; INTERNAL SECURITY - C." b7D b6 b7C

Re report of SA ROBERT M. MacNAMARA captioned as above and dated May 25, 1953, at Seattle, Washington.

It will be recalled that the subject's sister, ROSE KRYZAK visited Seattle, Washington from May 15 through May 19, 1953.

FISUR advised that on Sunday, May 17, 1953, ROSE KRYZAK, in company with Attorney C. T. RATTON, DICK BURGCON, and IRENE and CHRIS MENSALVAS visited a patient in Room 107, Ward 40, at Firland's Sanatorium, the tuberculosis sanatorium north of Seattle. FISUR advised that the patient visited appeared to be a Filipino.

On May 26, 1953, Miss GRACE GOOD, Nurses Office, Firland's Sanatorium, after review of the records, advised that on May 17, 1953, LARRY AMES and CARLOS BULOSAN occupied Room 107, Ward 40. After viewing photographs of the missing national Communist Party functionaries, Miss GOOD stated that to the best of her knowledge, none of these individuals had been or presently are patients at the sanatorium.

Mrs. L. PALMER, Chief Nurse, Ward 40, stated that Ward 40 is a surgical ward and that patients only remain there a few days following an operation. Mrs. PALMER continued that LARRY AMES and CARLOS BULOSAN occupied Room 107 on Sunday, May 17, 1953, and that BULOSAN was recovering from a knee fusion operation. Mrs. PALMER continued that BULOSAN, on visiting days, had numerous visitors both Caucasian and Filipinos. After viewing photographs of WILLIAM NORMAN MARRON and other missing Communist Party functionaries, Mrs. PALMER stated that none of these individuals were ever patients in her ward. Mrs. PALMER described LARRY AMES as white, male, height - 5' 4", weight - 110 pounds, blond hair, and CARLOS BULOSAN as Filipino, male, height - 5' 2", weight - 100 pounds, short left leg, black hair.

SMITH ACT OF 1940

The following information will further identify CHRIS MENSALVAS.

MENSALVAS is the President of ILWU Cannery Workers Local 37 at Seattle, Washington and is presently the subject of a deportation case with the Immigration and Naturalization Service. The "Daily People's World", West Coast Communist Party newspaper, frequently identifies MENSALVAS' name with Communist Party front activities in the Seattle area. IRENE MENSALVAS is the mother of DICK BURGOON, who recently married ANN KRYZAK, the daughter of ROSE KRYZAK.

C. T. HATTON, aka Barry Hatton, is an attorney in Seattle, Washington who is associated in an administrative capacity with the defense of the seven Smith Act subjects presently standing trial in Seattle. HATTON is also attorney for MENSALVAS in a deportation case and also is one of the attorneys for ILWU Local 37.

CARLOS EULOSAN is a personal friend of CHRIS MENSALVAS and prior to his entering Firland's Sanatorium he was employed as Publicity Director for Local 37 and also edited "1952 Year Book, Local 37, ILWU".

[redacted] (protect by appropriate symbol) advised that during the course of a security type investigation by another government agency it was ascertained that CARLOS EULOSAN in 1952 was in correspondence with AMADO V. HERMANDEZ, National Chairman of the Philippine Congress of Labor Organizations, and that EULOSAN and HERMANDEZ collaborated in the preparation of Communist propaganda for subsequent publication in periodicals widely read in the Philippine Islands.

On May 17, 1951, [redacted] (protect by appropriate symbol) advised SA H. EDWARD WHITE of the Los Angeles Division that EULOSAN had told him that he, EULOSAN, was in contact with LUIS TARUC, HUK leader in the Philippines. It will be noted that the "1952 Year Book, Local 37, ILWU", which was edited by EULOSAN carried on page 27 a photograph of TARUC and an article praising TARUC and the revolutionary activities of the HUKS.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, SEATTLE (100-20689)

DATE: 8-24-54

FROM : SA ROBERT H. WICK

SUBJECT: CARLOS BULOAN, wa
SECURITY MATTER-C

On 6-14-54, the subject, in response to his request, was interviewed by SA [redacted] and the writer in a Bureau car adjacent to the King Street Station, Seattle, Washington.

b6

BULOAN advised that he is currently living at the Morrison Hotel, 3rd Ave. and Yesler Way, Seattle, Washington. This information had previously been verified through contact with the Morrison Hotel desk clerk by the writer on 6-11-54. He (BULOAN) said that he is employed by Local 37, Cannery Workers Branch, ILWU in Seattle as the local's Publicity Director.

The subject stated that he has suffered from tuberculosis for many years and at the present time is down to 87 pounds. BULOAN was advised that the FBI has no interest in labor management affairs and the interest, if any, which is shown in union activity, is restricted to that where the union may be dominated by the Communist Party.

BULOAN advised that he was born 11-1-12, at Cinalonan, Pangasinan, Philippine Islands. He stated that he came to the United States about 1922 entering at Los Angeles, California. He said that when he came to the U. S., he was so amazed at the amount of opportunity for education, that he sat down in the Los Angeles Public Library and proceeded to read every book on the shelves. BULOAN claimed to have read from early morning to closing time, limiting himself to one meal a day. He boasted that he had a photographic memory and was able to retain the information readily.

BULOAN stated that he has never been married, although he admitted living with MARJORIE CHUBB up until entering Firlands Sanitarium in Seattle in 1952. BULOAN attempted to convey that he was an extremely shy individual.

He said that he has never served in any branch of the armed forces.

He stated that he has never been arrested.

BULOAN asserted that he has spent most of his life as a writer having had several books published. He mentioned in this regard that his job of Publicity Director for Local 37, ILWU is to expire at the end of the week ending July 17, 1954. He has no future plans other than more writing.

He advised that he has spent much of his life in hospitals, because of tuberculosis and he displayed a large operation scar on his left wrist which he said was the result of the removal of his left knee cap. BULOSAN said that he continues to suffer from TB of the kidney and has to check in with King County Health Department at the Public Safety Building in Seattle every three months.

BULOSAN stated that he had never met LUIS TARUC. He said that he became interest in the Hukbalahap movement during world War II because it represented a movement on behalf of the people instead of the rich land owners. He said that he was unaware that TARUC was a CP member until it was publicly announced in about 1949. He said that he knew very little concerning Communism in illustration, he claimed to have read Karl Marx's "Capital" twice without understanding the theory. BULOSAN said that he never had been a member of the Communist Party. BULOSAN's present position with reference to the Huk movement is that President Magsay say is accomplishing the same thing as TARUC attempted to do. BULOSAN said that it is for that reason, that TARUC surrendered to Magsaysay. BULOSAN said that he had heard that TARUC had been purged by the CP of the Philippines since his surrender.

BULOSAN was asked how he could claim innocence with regard to following the CP line when by his own books and publication he seldom deviates from that line. In reply, he shrugged his shoulders and displayed no interest in answering that or any specific questions concerning Communism. He admitted that he he had attended several "socials" sponsored by the local American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born and said that he is acquainted with MARION KINNEY. He advised that she distrusts him and has even told others that he is a stoolpigeon. He said that he is well acquainted with ~~CHAS. MENSALVAS~~, but does not get along with his wife ~~IRENE MENSALVAS~~. BULOSAN said that ~~ERNESTO MANGAOANG~~ dislikes him (BULOSAN) and he is of the opinion that both ~~MENSALVAS~~ and ~~MANGAOANG~~ are on their way out of union leadership inasmuch as they are known so well as being sympathetic to the Communists. BULOSAN believed that EUGENE NAVARRO would succeed ~~MANGAOANG~~ as Business Agent for the Union.

Although BULOSAN's details concerning his adherences to the CP line and his connections with the Hukbalahap movement were vague and insufficient, no concerted effort was made to force him to make unequivocal statements. It was felt that perhaps sometime in the future, another interview could be had with BULOSAN under more favorable circumstances.

[redacted] attended this function from approximately 6:00 p.m.
until 10:15 p.m., making available a leaflet indicating that this "birthday party" was to be held in honor of CHRIS MENSALVAS, ALEC ALCANTRA, FRED GONZALES, and LIL RUBICZ. This exhibit reflects that dinner would be served for $1.00 a plate, to be followed by games, dancing, and refreshments. Also, that the function was for the purpose of supporting the ALCANTRA defense against Alaska screenings. It further requests the reader to help repeal the Walter-McCarran law.

On 10/1/54 WILLIAM HENNESSEY, attorney, Smith Tower, Seattle (no record) a business acquaintance of SA JOSEPH C. MC DONALD, advised the writer and SA McDONALD that TRINIDAD A. ROJO, a former officer in the ILWU Local 37, has retained him to prepare and file an injunction action against CHRIS LENSALVAS, President, and CARLOS BULOSAN, Educational Director, enjoining them from holding office on the basis of a number of charges that they had acted in violation of the union rules and regulations. Specifically, they were alleged to have voted raises for themselves without polling the membership concerning such raises. Further, they were alleged to have taken money from the burial fund of the union for use in the general fund.

HENNESSEY advised that in filing this injunction he is going to ask that a receiver be appointed by the court to operate this union.

HENNESSEY advised he would advise this office of any further action in this regard.

[redacted] attended this function from approximately 1:00 p.m. until 10:10 p.m., at Finnish Hall in Seattle, estimating 300 persons present, including children. TERRY PETTUS was the chairman in charge of the function.

It was learned that WILL PARRY sold $12.00 worth of raffle tickets on a Higgins .22 caliber repeating rifle, the funds to go to the PW drive. SHORTY BROOKS sold $15.75 worth of raffle tickets on the same gun.

ERNESTINE ADAMS, 1327 Boren Avenue, was observed making a $5.00 donation toward the P.W. fund drive to one SHORTY BROOKS. She is the woman who works across the street from the Frontier Book Store and who picks up her PW at the Frontier Book Store, 106 Cherry, Seattle.

KEITH BRADLEY was heard conversing with VIOLET and GEORGE RUSSELL concerning a 31st District meeting to be held at the home of PEARL THRASHER on Sept. 29, 1954, Wednesday evening. GENE ROBEL was heard to ask KEITH BRADLEY if there would be a caucus before the meeting, indicating that C.P. members would secretly agree on a plan of action prior to this political meeting so that maximum results could be achieved during the meeting favoring CP policy. The informant explained this is his own conclusion, which was not expressed by ROBEL but is based on informant's familiarity with CP methods.

Among those present the informant identified the following:

Informant, by type-written notes, advised that the above affair was sponsored by the "People's World" Northwest Bureau and the Washington State Free Press Clubs. There was much activity in the hall throughout the day. There were booths around the four sides of the hall and one long table down the middle. At one end a few people played Bingo. The rest of the table was covered with miscellaneous displays. GERTRUDE WHITELEY had charge of articles made by the Helping Hand Society. ETHEL BEACH read palms at the Fortune Telling booth. Posters and designs decorating that booth were made by JANE BARNES. HELEN HUFF sat at the used book display. MARION WINNEY was behind a large array of literature. Later in the evening VIVIAN GEORGE took it over. BERTA PETTUS and RUTH BAKER sold knitted hats and children's clothes. FERN KERR had charge of a booth of notions for Mothers of Peace. MABEL CONRAD worked at a booth serving hamburgers and cold drinks. MARJORIE DASCHBACH worked at a booth selling mystery packages. HARRIET PIERCE collected.

[REDACTED] furnished a written report of captioned Christmas dinner which the informant described as "just a Christmas dinner, no speeches, no collections, no charge." The informant advised that among those present were CHRIS and IRENE MENSALVES and children, SHORTY BROOKS, DICK and ANN BURGOON, HENRY VILLAVOSA, GLEN and MARION KINNEY, BORIS SASSIEFF, PETE MOLODIN, a Filipino, a girl by the name of MYRNA, last name unknown, a Filipino or Indian girl, CARLOS BULOSONG, Mr. and Mrs. _____ LOMPAUGH with daughter and granddaughter.

The informant overheard IRENE MENSALVES telling SHORTY BROOKS that PONCE TORRES is in the hospital for cancer on 18th Ave. and E. Madison St. in Seattle and that JOE BUTTERWORTH was trying to contact people to be in the court room on December 27, 1954 when A. A. FISHER meets sentence.

The informant also observed ANN BURGOON giving SHORTY BROOKS the address of BARBARA KYZAK, 3987 47th St., Sunnyside 4, Long Island, New York, in order that BROOKS would be able to send a birthday card to KYZAK and possibly get some of his stamps back which he had formerly given her. IRENE MENSALVES played a long playing record that she recently received from New York City.

IRENE MENSALVAS was overheard telling SHORTY BROOKS that DICK and ANN BURGOON are now back in Long Island, New York for the summer.

BOB PATRICK, BILL LUTCH and GUS RYSTAD were discussing the trouble that BOB PATRICK was having in collecting dues on the waterfront.

MARY ANN VAN LYDEGRAF was overheard telling SHORTY BROOKS that PEGGY BACKLUND has aged ten years lately and had recently married a young attorney who is not yet very progressive.

FROM: SA JOHN L. KETCHAM

SUBJECT: COMINFIL
ILWU
IS-C
ISA 50

On 5/10/55, WILLIAM HENNESSEY, Attorney, Smith Tower Building, Seattle, made available to the writer certain minutes of the membership meeting of Local 37, Cannery Workers, ILWU, Seattle, Wash., which are in his possession, with a view in mind to possible use in a legal action now pending against the leadership of this local. These minutes, examined by the writer 5/10/55 in the office of Mr. HENNESSEY, a friend of SA JOSEPH McDONALD, recently of this office, are not complete in that they are apparently a collection of particular minutes of particular meetings made available to Mr. HENNESSEY, but do not include or purport to include the minutes of every meeting of the local.

The following information is set out, following this review, as pertinent to COMINFIL, ILWU case file.

The minutes of the regular membership meeting held at Seattle 6/28/50, reflect that the membership was addressed by a Miss LONNIE NELSON, who spoke on "Peace" - about a protest against the viciousness of war, originating in Sweden. She noted that there were 120,000,000 signatures to this petition. Following this talk by Miss NELSON, it was moved, seconded and carried by the membership that the local endorse "... the world's move for peace."

The minutes for the membership meeting of July 26, 1950, at Seattle, reflect that TOM RABBITT addressed the membership and spoke on peace and outlawing the atom bomb.

These minutes reflect that the Portland membership was addressed January 21, 1951, by a Miss KATHLEEN CRONIN, "who did a lot for the protection of the foreign born", as she was introduced. She talked briefly, but about what was not quite clear in the minutes.

The minutes of the Portland membership meeting for April 22, 1951, reflect that this group was addressed by a MARY JANE _____ on the defense of the foreign born. The minutes later reflect that a TANCIOCO was talking, no first name listed (it is noted that MARY JANE may well be MARY JANE TANCIOCO). This TANCIOCO talked in part, "I have spoken in several meetings of different organizations in behalf of the protection of the foreign born."

The minutes of the membership meeting for Local 7-C (Seattle), dated June 20, 1951, reflect that MARGARET DONALDSON, introduced as a representative of the "Peace Crusader". Specifically she wanted the Cannery Workers represented at a "peace conference" to be held in Chicago June 30 and July 1 (1951). She also wanted an endorsement of Senator JOHNSON's resolution concerning a cease-fire in Korea. PONCE TORRES spoke in favor of the resolution. ERNESTO MANGAOANG likewise spoke for the resolution.

It was moved and seconded that the group send a delegate. It was amended and carried that the local send one of the officials who is on the payroll to represent "us" at this affair. The minutes of the meeting of Local 7-C held July 11, 1951, reflect that LAGUNILLA was "reporting on the peace crusade that he attended in the city of Chicago..."

The minutes of the meeting July 25, 1951, again reflect "LAGUNILLA - reports on the 'peace crusade' that he attended at Chicago. Please refer to the report as submitted." These minutes reflect that it was moved, seconded and carried that "we all accept the reports" (did not say what reports). It was likewise moved, seconded and carried that "we grant the request of the Pension Union to send a speaker during the next membership meeting."

The minutes of the regular membership meeting held October 17, 1951, reflect that sister JACKSON and sister KELLEY spoke as representatives from the Pension Union on "Aid to Informant furnished notes indicating informant's attendance at the above affair. There were a number of Filipinos present who assisted Chris Mensalvas in the preparation of the Chop Suey. Conversation was desultory. Clara Paulson advised that the WCPFB is trying to get Cecil Jay into Canada where he may later have a chance to apply for return to the United States. Music was provided by Val Premzic. Frank Krasnowski was present and buttonholed Gunnar Paulson. Krasnowski expressed the opinion that both political parties are worried at the present time. He said they are urging the people to get out and vote for the party of their choice fearing that if a large proportion of the people do not vote, some Labor or Progressive Party will see this opportunity and get into power.

Bulosan, writer and worker, was buried from his union hall

SEATTLE They buried Carlos Bulosan from the hall of the union to which he had given a life time of devotion—the Cannery Workers division of the Intl. Longshoremen & Warehousemen.

Members and friends crowded the auditorium of the union's building, just off Seattle's famed Skid Road, to say farewell to the Filipino-American author, labor educator and freedom fighter who died at the age of 41.

The Rev. Dr. John W. Caughlan, Methodist Minister and state chairman of the Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born, gave the funeral eulogy. Chris Mensalvas, longtime friend and president of Local 37, told of Bulosan's life.

Bulosan, who taught himself to read and write English by studying in the children's room of the Los Angeles Public Library, achieved national prominence as an author in 1946. That year saw the publication of his semi-autobiographical "America Is in the Heart." It became a best seller.

This was followed by many stories and articles; "The Voice of Batdan," a book-length poem and "Chorus for America," two volumes of poetry. At the time of his death he was working on a Carnegie fellowship. His almost completed manuscript of a sequel to "America Is in the Heart" will be submitted to a publisher.

Mensalvas told how Bulosan came to the U.S. in 1931 with only $2.50 and unable to communicate with most Filipinos because he did not know the Tagalog dialect.

"It was the depths of the depression and we Filipinos were recruited for cheap farm labor. We picked apples in Yakima and worked in the fields near Salinas. But all the time Carlos was reading in his continuous search for knowledge."

These experiences, Mensalvas said, were in Bulosan's heart and mind when he was called to Washington, D.C., during World War II to work with the Office of War Information. It was then that he participated in drafting one of President Roosevelt's famed four freedoms — "Freedom from Want." Later Bulosan served for a time as union educational director.

Carlos Bulosan's epitaph was written as the casket was carried out of the union hall. A crowd of curious collected. "Oh, a funeral," one exclaimed.

"Yes," said an elderly Filipino, "the funeral of a great man."

They are even afraid of our songs of love, my brother.*

—Carlos Bulosan

SEATTLE—Death came September 11th to Carlos Bulosan, 41, best-selling author who was a member of ILWU Local 31.

Mr. Bulosan died three hours after being admitted to Harborview County Hospital suffering pneumonitis, a lung congestion.

Born in Binalonan, Northern Luzon in the Philippines, Bulosan migrated to the United States as a common laborer in 1931. He was immediately sent to an Alaska cannery where he earned $13 for the season.

Returning to Los Angeles, Bulosan learned English from books in the childrens' room of the Los Angeles Public Library.

His book, "America Is In My Heart," became a best seller in 1946.

In addition to many articles in leading American magazines, he wrote several other books including "The Laughter of My Father" and a book-length poem, "The Voice of Bataan." His death interrupted his work on a sequel to "America Is In My Heart" to be titled "My Letter to the World." He had been working under a Carnegie Fund grant from the Author's Club of New York.

Funeral services were held in the union hall on September 14.

Re: Alleged Communist Influence in
Labor Movement - Philippine Islands

On November 5, 1959, a confidential source, contact with whom has been insufficient to judge the reliability of his information, voluntarily furnished the following information:

This source stated that during a recent trip to the Philippine Islands in the summer of 1959, "responsible Philippine labor leaders" told the source that they were concerned with the emergence of what they termed "left-wing" thinking on the part of certain other Philippine labor leaders. Source explained that by "responsible labor leaders" is meant such individuals that agree with United States policy in the Philippines.

Source continued that this emergence is causing concern as these "left-wing" labor individuals have in the past been afforded exchange type tours sponsored by "ICA" and/or the American Embassy, and these individuals appear, following their visits to the United States, to change their philosophy to the "Communist way of thinking."

Source stated that he realizes the above information is quite vague, but that it is causing concern among Filipinos inasmuch as it allegedly appears that after visits to the United States, certain Philippine labor leaders change their "way of thinking" and become anti-American.

Re: Alleged Communist Influence in Labor Movement - Philippine Islands

Source indicated the following three individuals as members of the Philippine labor movement who have visited the United States on such exchange tours which included visits to the Department of Labor and contacts with various unions within the United States (names unknown to the source):

(1) Mr. R. Morales, President of the Philippine Marine Officers Union in Manila, Philippine Islands, whom source believes came to the United States in 1955.

(2) (First Name Unknown) Tirad, labor leader in the San Miguel Brewery Union, Philippine Islands.

(3) (First Name Unknown) Lochsina, whom source characterized as a "top leader in the union movement" in the Philippines who was definitely a "left-winger and gangster type."

Above source was unable to furnish any additional background information concerning the above three-mentioned individuals, but cited them as examples of "left-wing" individuals in the Philippine labor movement.

The above source was unable to furnish the names or identities of any individuals within the United States by whom the above three-mentioned Philippine labor leaders might have been adversely influenced, during their trips to the United States.

The above source did mention, however, that a Mr. Carlos Bulason, who lives on the West Coast of the United States, possibly Seattle, Washington, is believed by source to have been in touch with the above three-mentioned individuals, the extent of which is unknown to the source. Source continued that Bulason is a "writer" and a Philippine national, but could not furnish any other identifying data concerning this individual.

The source advised he believes that a Mr. Thomas Mc Hale, who is presently employed by an agency of the United

Re: Alleged Communist Influence in Labor Movement - Philippine Islands

States Government (exact agency unknown) has been in the Philippines, and the possibility exists that (First Name Unknown) Lochsina, mentioned previously, visited Mr. Mc Hale during Lochsina's visits to the United States.

The source concluded by stating that inasmuch as these Filipinos who are sent to the United States are in effect sponsored by the United States Government, it is regrettable that when they return to the Philippine Islands they espouse a cause directly in opposition to the United States.

Carlos Bulosan Manuscripts Sought Here

A memorial to the late Carlos Bulosan, some of his admirers and friends are gathering his manuscripts to be presented to the University of the Philippines. Before they are sent away, copies will be made for the University of Washington Library.

Mary Gibson, 820 Cherry St., has made an appeal in behalf of the Bulosan Manuscript Committee for assistance in finding originals of his writings. Bulosan frequently gave poetry to acquaintances. The committee wishes to make certain that the collection contains examples of all of his work.

Two tape recordings of interviews with Bulosan's brother, Aurelio, and his close friend, Chris Mensalvas, telling about the writer's literary life and activities, will be preserved with the manuscripts.

Bulosan died in Seattle September 11, 1956, leaving several book manuscripts which were near completion. He was the author of "The Laughter of My Father," "America Is in the Heart," and several other volumes.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDATE: March 2, 1960

b7D

On February 26, 1960, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Seattle Washington, advised as follows:

DICK and GRETCHEN DAVIS moved just before Christmas, 1959 from the apartment in which they had been living to an address near White Center. GRETCHEN has been laid off indefinitely from her temporary job with a packing company. DICK DAVIS continues to work with the J. P. Forza landscaping crew.

GEORGE and PAT STARKOVICH continue to reside at the same address on Vashon Island. GEORGE is still working for FORZA but is trying to set up a landscaping route for himself and may leave FORZA. PAT continues with the same job she has held for some time.

In 1951 PAUL BOWEN gave instructions to MERRILL "SLIM" KIMPLE to go underground. The KIMPLE's were given one week to sell their house and therefore had to make what amounted to a forced sale, realizing only $1800 on a $3,000 value. "SLIM" dropped out of sight completely but occasionally returned to Seattle for meetings with [REDACTED] who received notification of same through VIVIAN GEORGE. VIVIAN GEORGE was a Communist Party member who had remained in the open Communist Party (CP) organization. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In order to make ends meet during this period, [REDACTED] was forced to use up an additional $1800 which she had received through an inheritance. At one point VIVIAN GEORGE told [REDACTED] that the interests of the Communist Party should precede [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Both VIVIAN GEORGE and her husband, EARL, were described by [REDACTED] as CP members who will follow directives from above without question. B. J. MANGAOANG was named as another of the same type.

"SLIM" KIMPLE was pulled out of the underground after about a year because it was not felt he was accomplishing anything. He was criticized for being too independent. Many had gone into the underground as though "bravely marching out to the crusade" only to find on their return they had become [redacted] targets for criticism. [redacted] never did find out exactly where "SLIM" was while in hiding but is under the impression it was in the direction of Aberdeen, Washington.

[redacted] during "SLIM"s absence, this being from VIVIAN GEORGE at a time when they were completely "up against it."

"SLIM" KIMPLE is now opposed to the CP but has never come out openly against the Party. He has been an admirer of BARBARA HARTLE in the past.

KIMPLE's son-in-law and daughter, DICK AND GRETCHEN DAVIS, were also sent into the underground during the above period. They were sent to Tacoma, Washington, along with Seattle Communist Party member DEL CASTLE. DEL CASTLE antagonized GRETCHEN by his authoritative attitude and they argued constantly. The DAVIS's "almost starved" in Tacoma and lost interest when they failed to receive any instructions as to what they were supposed to do. GRETCHEN used funds sent to them by the COMMUNIST PARTY to live on and as a result was subsequently accused of financial misappropriation. The DAVIS's finally became so disgusted they came back out into the open and left Tacoma of their own accord. Both are now through with the Communist Party. DICK DAVIS now refers to the Communist Party as "The Howdy-Doody Club."

Others who were disaffected by their experience in the CP underground were DEL and PEARL CASTLE, MILFORD SUTHERLAND, and CLAYTON VAN LYDEGRAF were blamed for lack of leadership. Both were described as career Communists who are not popular with the membership. KIMPLE observed that the Northwest District of the CP has a leadership which is short on ability. It is a small group trying to retain control.

BURT NELSON, Washington State Chairman of the Communist Party, was described by [redacted] as "stupid". NELSON became angry recently when the electricity was turned off in his houseboat and various other things done for which he blamed various parties, including the F.B.I., even though having no basis therefor.

JIM BOURNE was head of the Waterfront Section of the Communist Party in Seattle many years ago. He was a common-law husband of former CP leader BARBARA HARTLE and also had an affair with NELL RANTA. NELL RANTA was married to CARL RANTA at the time but thought it "smart" to play up to BOURNE as a leader in the Party.

[redacted]

Later NELL RANTA brought charges of immorality in the Central Section, CP, against JO PATRICK, who had given lodging in PATRICK's house to a number of Filipinos, including now deceased writer and poet CARLOS BULOSAN. [redacted] felt the charges were unjust and told NELL RANTA "there was no one so virtuous as a reformed prostitute." RANTA apparently did not retain animosity towards [redacted] as late in 1959 RANTA contacted [redacted] to invite her to a cultural affair.

[redacted] described JO PATRICK as a person of considerable intellectual ability. Both JO and her husband, BOB, were stated to have left the CP and affiliated with the "Trotskyites." According to [redacted] JO PATRICK was "sent East for a year" where she was trained in leadership by the "Trotskyites," returning to Seattle in June, 1959. A weakness of JO PATRICK is her liking for drink.

After the National Convention of the CP, USA which followed the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist Party, a meeting was held in the Central Section, CP, with a report given by VIVIAN GEORGE. VIVIAN GEORGE held down discussion permitting no talk of Hungary. This was "the beginning of the end" so far as [redacted] was concerned.

SHIRLEY SCHNEIDER quit the CP, before [redacted]. Her reasons were much the same.

KELLEY MINK also quit the CP. [redacted] does not know if she has affiliated with any other organization.

HALLIE DONALDSON was formerly a good friend of [redacted] when the latter was in the Communist Party. HALLIE, for reasons unknown to [redacted] became extremely suspicious after HALLIE's return from a trip to Mexico and practically "cut her off at the knees." According to [redacted] interest in the Communist Party is the biggest thing to life to DONALDSON who has never married.

[redacted] has had no recent contact with her former associates other than a mailed invitation to a WCPFB affair received several weeks ago.
